

I Belong Because

What do you have in common with your audience?

What else?

How does this connect you?

How do you feel when you think of this?

What do you think they feel when they think of this?

Where is the humor in this?

Where is the tenderness and vulnerability in this?

What do you want to share with them about this?